We will also be starting our Food Drive for Thanksgiving. Bring any non-perishable food to start the season of giving.

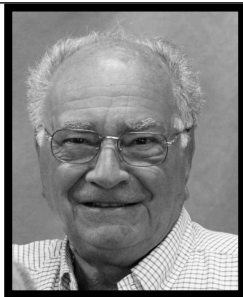

OUR CLUB IS FRESH & CLEAN ONCE AGAIN

About 25 members gathered on Sunday, October 13th to deep clean our Club. The green walls behind the bar and hall were also re-painted.

Our original barbecue which was designed and built in 1986 by Rene Nadal (a friend of Bert Aghessetche's) has also been refurbished. Vanessa & Dominique Camou and Famoso Nut Company paid for the repair and restoration of the barbecue in honor of the Irisarri and Camou Families.

Thank you to everyone who participated!

COLORADO BASQUE PICNIC & NABO MEETING HELD IN GRAND JUNCTION

NABO held its fall meeting followed by the Colorado Basque Club's annual picnic and mus tournament in Grand Junction, CO the last weekend of September. Because Mayi Berterretche Petracek was awarded the Bizi Emankorra many Californians were there in attendance. The Colorado National & State Register Historian, Eric Newcombe, and Scott Beilfuss, Grand Junction City Council Member at Large dedicated the handball court as a symbol of Basque culture and it is a landmark in the state. It was built by Jean Urruty in 1978.

Members of both the CBC and Gauden Bat, Elena, Jeanine and Emma Duhart performed several dances to honor Mayi, including "Agurra" with former Gauden Bat dancer and current Colorado resident and Colorado Basque Club Secretary, Vanessa Manjarrez. Barbecued lamb was served and music was provided by Jean Flesher. Former Californian and current Colorado resident, Remy Labrousche also attended. CBC MEMBERS: DUES TO INCREASE IN 2025

The Board of Directors have decided to increase the dues but it is still the best bargain in town. The annual dues, beginning February of 2025 will be $30; an increase of $10.

All other pricing will remain the same at our Club lunches because we want ALL of YOU to attend. Our goal is to have everyone feel comfortable in getting together to celebrate and appreciate our Basque culture with no additional financial strain. Join us and "Basque" in the glow of our bright time together.
